Hide Deleted Listings

Recently, we made a change to allow you to still show your deleted listings in the View / Edit Listings area of My Account. When you delete a listing, it will now continue to show in the listings with a status of Deleted.

We realize that you may not want to see your deleted items, especially if you have a lot of listings. We have now made a change so your deleted listings do not show by default. To view your deleted listings, simply check the Show Deleted box at the top of your listings page.
